Questions 153-155 refer to the following customer review.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL https://www.therightvenue.com.au/customer_reviews. The page title is "Customer Reviews". A 5-star rating icon is displayed. The review is from "Elena Patterson" on "12 April". The text of the review is as follows:

My company recently held a banquet at the Calla Courtyard, and it was the perfect venue for our event. Initially, I was hesitant to book the space because it had only recently opened to the public and there were no customer reviews yet. — [1] — . I decided to give it a try anyway. Although it was a little expensive, the setting was absolutely stunning. — [2] — . The Calla Courtyard has a magnificent view of the bay. The staff had arranged the seats in the hall so that the guests could view the sunset through the large glass windows. One thing to note is that while the facility does have a kitchen available for use, it is quite small and not well-stocked. — [3] — . All in all, I was pleased with my decision and would definitely consider this place again for future events. — [4] — .

153. What is indicated about the Calla Courtyard?
- (A) It is a relatively new rental space.
 - (B) It was recently renovated.
 - (C) It is a popular venue for business events.

Questions 159-162 refer to the following online chat discussion.

The screenshot shows a digital communication platform with a header icon of three people. The messages are as follows:

Mario Lizzardi (11:09 A.M.) Team, sorry to bring this up early on a Monday, but the due date to submit our end-of-year report is coming up. We should aim to have each of our sections done by Wednesday so we can put everything together before the Friday deadline. I am almost done with the information for the technology section.

Karthik Durav (11:14 A.M.) I have already written up descriptions of the program's major accomplishments. I just need to add the number of participants and organizers involved in each. It won't take very long.

Paola Rossi (11:15 A.M.) I have finished the Future Goals section. I still need to finish the Predicted Budget Needs section, but I'd like to consult with some of you first.

Mario Lizzardi (11:15 A.M.) I can't help you with that. I don't have access to that information—only you and Human Resources have access to the participant lists.

Karthik Durav (11:17 A.M.) Don't worry, Mario. Paola, I could help to outline budget needs with you tomorrow. Anything else?

Paola Rossi: (11:18 A.M.) That's it. Depending on how much we finish, we could develop a timeline for finalizing the report this week.

159. For what aspect of the project is Mr. Lizzardi most likely responsible?
- (A) Production
(B) Budget
(C) Technology
(D) Personnel
160. Why does Mr. Lizzardi decline to help out?
- (A) He does not have time to work with Ms. Rossi.
(B) He has to attend a technology meeting.
(C) He cannot access the budget.
(D) He does not have information on participants.
161. When does Mr. Durav suggest meeting?
- (A) On Monday
(B) On Tuesday
(C) On Wednesday
(D) On Thursday
162. At 11:18 A.M., what does Ms. Rossi most likely mean when she writes, "That's it"?
- (A) She does not need any other help.
(B) She found the file she needs.
(C) She selected a new team logo.
(D) She has finished the end-of-year report.

Iwoni Media in the News

TORONTO (1 May)—Publisher Iwoni Media announced on Friday morning that new issues of Energy Run would not be released according to the book's regular monthly publishing schedule. — [1] —.

The company's decision is connected to plans to modernize its printing facility by replacing the now-obsolete machinery on which the legendary comic book is printed. — [2] —.

As the word spread on Friday of the decision to halt publication, fans rushed to buy what many feared might be the last issue. — [3] —. Iwoni Media's online store is reportedly the only place where the publication is still available.

Iwoni Media's spokesperson, Jon Emanuel, stated that the new printing facility should be up and running within four months and that the next issue of Energy Run will arrive on newsstands shortly after that. — [4] —.

"Fans should not worry," Mr. Emanuel said. "Their favourite characters will be back soon."

163. What is the purpose of the article?

- (A) To summarize the plot of a popular comic book
- (B) To publicize the opening of an online store
- (C) To report on a company's recent earnings
- (D) To describe a change in a company's operations

164. What is suggested about sales of Energy Run?

- (A) They increased suddenly.
- (B) They will be reported online.
- (C) They were expected to be low.
- (D) They were calculated incorrectly.

165. What did Mr. Emanuel announce?

- (A) A new character will be introduced.
- (B) A publication will become available again.
- (C) Some newsstands will be closed.
- (D) Some book prices will be reduced.

166. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong?

"To that end, the company has invested $100,000 in new equipment."

To: teamleaders@carfield.co.uk
From: fjacobs@carfield.co.uk
Subject: Workshops
Date: 13 November

Dear Team Leaders,

Thanks to you and your team members for attending our latest monthly workshop last week. These workshops are a key feature of our employee training program, as we consider it fundamental that our employees continue to learn new skills and perfect existing ones.

I know everyone has already completed their workshop evaluations, but we would like to obtain some more specific feedback to ensure that interesting and instructive workshops continue to be offered. Please answer the following questions.

- Were the exercises presented at the workshop related to employees' responsibilities? Have your team members been using the ideas presented?
- What, if anything, would you leave out in future workshops? What could be done better?
- Were the facilitators knowledgeable and engaging? Do you think your team would respond well to the same facilitators for other workshops?

Your perspectives on our workshops are invaluable. We would appreciate a response by the end of this week, as we are planning to discuss any information you can provide at our next management meeting next Tuesday.

Thanks for your cooperation,

Frank Jacobs

Biography	Books	Blog	Events
----------------------------------	-----------------------	----------------------	------------------------

Born and raised in Chiba Prefecture, Akiko Hirota started writing short stories in English in high school. She continued writing short fiction while completing her degree in English literature at the Chiba Institute of Linguistics.

Two years ago Ms. Hirota won the “Best Short Story” prize at the 5th Annual New York Writers Gala for her short story entitled, Dreaming of Maringá. She has participated in over 30 writers’ workshops, a number of which she has led, and has been a regular guest speaker at the Writers United Forum. A collection of her short stories written thus far, including Dreaming of Maringá, has been published by Jenson Publishing.

Lives Ensnared, Ms. Hirota’s first full-length novel, is inspired by her upbringing as the daughter of two marine biologists. It tells the story of a group of amateur divers whose lives were turned upside down following their discovery of a hitherto unknown species of shark. Scheduled for release by mid-September, the novel is sure to appeal to a wide audience.

“From the depths of the ocean comes a novel of mystery and suspense!”
—Diayu Ling, Sun National Times

Altered Existence is the first novel by Japanese author Akiko Hirota. When Hiroko Jitsukawa and her friends learned that they had discovered a new shark species, they were quite excited, fully expecting fame and fortune. What they got instead was a sea of trouble that would completely upend their lives.
